

Soviet Press Adds Fuel To Iran Dispute

Full Of Dynamite,
Foreign Diplomats
In Moscow Declare

MOSCOW, May 23 (AP)—The Moscow press today devoted much attention to the situation in Iran and foreign diplomats here said the British-Iranian dispute is packed with dynamite.

Some persons in Moscow expressed the belief that Britain may seek to use troops or battle-ships in the argument over the nationalization of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. by the Iranian government.

If this should happen, these sources said, Iran would present a threat to world peace greater than the Korean war. Russia has a 30-year-old treaty with Iran, Article 6 of which gives the Soviet Union the right to send troops to her southern neighbor if foreign forces intervene there or if a threat to U.S.S.R. security develops there.

Today's newspapers carried headlines referring to "Anglo-American Meddling In Iran's Internal Affairs".

Meanwhile, tension mounted in crisis-torn Teheran after some 30,000 Moslems—booing the U.S. and Britain—vowed yesterday to wage holy war if need be to nationalize the nation's rich oil resources.

(An air of crisis gripped the Iranian capital as police and troops, on a 24-hour alert, patrolled the streets in trucks and on horseback. A dozen tanks roamed the city, ready for action.)

(A resolution declaring "strong hatred" of the U.S. and Britain was cheered wildly at yesterday's mass rally, called by Moslem religious leaders and Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's national bloc.

(The cheering reached fever pitch when black-bearded Chams Ghanatabadi, leader of the militant Mujaheddin Islam (fighters for Islam), declared:

("All loyal Moslems will throw the British bandits into the Persian Gulf if they do not leave the country!")

(Thousands of Moslem religious warriors were waved in approval when another speaker, parliament member Hossein Makki, declared a recent statement by the U.S. State Department was "a stab in the back of the Iranian nation."

(The State Department, which has urged moderation on both sides of the dispute, has been accused by Iranians of backing the British stand against nationalization.

(In London, informed sources said Britain has promised to consult fully with the United States before deciding to send troops to Iran even to protect British lives and property.)

SALEM, May 23 (Special)—Marvin Manis, 38, of Cleveland died Tuesday at 5:32 p. m. at Salem City Hospital of injuries received early yesterday when his auto crashed into a showroom of the Parker Chevrolet Co. Garage.

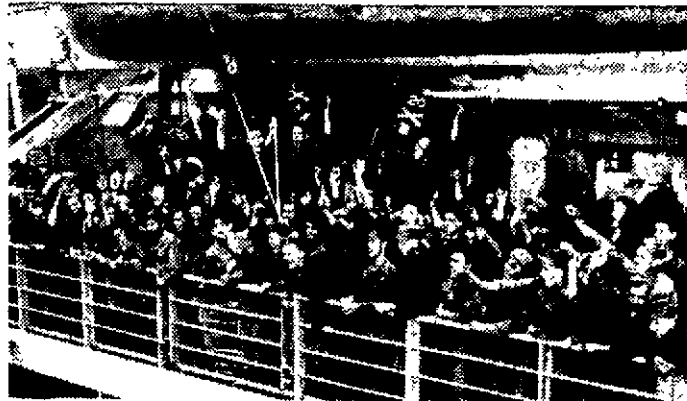

His brother, Ira Manis, 24, of Salem, is in "fair" condition with a possible fractured right shoulder and body bruises. The Cleveland had been visiting his brother.

It was the ninth county traffic fatality of the year and Salem's first since Dec. 6, 1949.

The victim received a fractured skull, chest injuries and cuts and bruises when the auto which he was driving failed to make a curve at the intersection at 4:05 a. m. It jumped the curb and knocked off a gasoline pump before it smashed into the garage building.

Police said the front of the building was ripped down and a large plate glass window was shattered. A new auto on display was damaged by flying debris. The gas pump, weighing about 350 pounds, was knocked about 100 feet. Damage to the building was estimated at $2,500.

SALEM, May 23—An Akron resident and four other women narrowly escaped death yesterday when their car stalled on the railroad tracks at a crossing south of here. The group escaped from the automobile seconds before it was hit by a train. The driver of the demolished car was Lillian C. Poche.

Tractor Upset Kills Retired Lisbon Man, 84

O. S. Hill Dies In 2nd Mishap Since Friday; Rites To Be Friday

LISBON, May 23 (Special)—Oswin S. Hill, 84, widely-known farm implement dealer, was killed Tuesday at 1:45 p. m. when crushed beneath a tractor on his farm along Route 164.

The tractor, a Cub model Mr. Hill was using for plowing, went over a steep bank and rolled over Mr. Hill's head and chest.

He was pronounced dead by a Lisbon physician.

The fatality was the second tractor death in a week in the county. Matthew M. Gbur, 17, of West Point died Saturday of injuries received Friday night at Gavers when a tractor overturned.

Mr. Hill was born Feb. 23, 1867, in Center Township, a son of Jacob and Artemisia Hill.

He retired to the farm in 1947 after 50 years in the farm equipment business in Lisbon as head of the O. S. Hill & Sons Co., which he founded.

Mr. Hill and his wife, Erma, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Oct. 19, 1949.

Besides his widow, he leaves two sons, Harold Hill of Youngstown, and Donald Hill of Lisbon; three daughters, Mrs. Pearl Gregg of Lisbon, Mrs. Mildred Juginheimer of Youngstown, and Mrs. Kathryn Champion of North Lima; a brother, William Hill of Lompoc, Calif., and 15 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 2:30 p. m. at the Ellis-Leggett Funeral Home by Rev. J. G. Waelder. Burial will be in Lisbon Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday.

Fight To Save R.F.C. Pushed By Fulbright

Compromise Sought As Group In Senate Winds Up Hearings

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Senator Fulbright (D) of Arkansas, who has accused White House aids of playing politics with the Reconstruction Finance Corp., called signals today in a fight to save the R.F.C. from destruction.

Mr. Fulbright scheduled wind-up hearings before the Senate banking committee on a bill to put the big government lending agency out of business.

The Arkansas senator contends the R.F.C. needs reform, but that small business cannot spare its loan facilities. He predicted victory yesterday in his efforts to get Congress to compromise on a bill to require reforms he has proposed in R.F.C. operations, and possibly to place a "ceiling" on amounts it could lend to any single borrower.

Mr. Fulbright called on bankers today to tell what they think of the R.F.C.'s role in the nation's economy—whether it is unfair government competition with private lending agencies and whether it is true, as some witnesses have argued, that private banks no longer can provide all the credit needed to keep the economy healthy.

Wendell Berge, former head of the Justice Department's antitrust division, went farther in testimony before the committee yesterday. He declared that big lenders are involved in a "web of industrial and financial power" which blocks small businesses from credit.

Bradley Returns As Russell Snubs Tobey Plea To End Probe

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—General Omar Bradley said today: "There is danger of the Russians moving into Iran and starting another aggression."

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—The Senate investigation into General Douglas MacArthur's ouster and Far Eastern policy showed no signs today of fading away any time soon despite calls from senators of both parties for an early end.

General Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, was due for his fifth day of testimony as hearings before the armed services and foreign relations committees extended into their 16th day. General Bradley has supported President Truman's firing of General MacArthur as Pacific commander.

Senator Russell (D) of Georgia, who is presiding, rejected a suggestion by Senator Tobey (R) of New Hampshire that the whole thing be called off because "when we get all through, Mr. MacArthur will still be deposed." While not going that far, other senators advocated measures to shorten the inquiry.

General Bradley, although he did not suggest any curtailment of the hearings, did tell the Senate committees yesterday that the revelations being made during the hearings might incite Russia to start aggression elsewhere. He also declared:

"I think it is very harmful to our security and to our country and to our future security to have to pass on to Russia all of our intentions, all of our thoughts, all of our capabilities."

Mr. Russell termed "premature" Mr. Tobey's proposal that the committees "ring down the curtain."

"I don't think we can afford to even consider closing the hearings at this stage," he told reporters.

Mr. Tobey advanced the suggestion late yesterday when it came his turn to question General Bradley. Passing up the opportunity, he urged his colleagues to "forget little piddling stuff" and reject an opportunity to throw "sand in the gear box."

"I wish we could ring the curtain down, for the good of the country and the men in the service in Korea," Mr. Tobey said. He added that he was "impressed with the futility of much that is going on here."

Probers Ask: 'Who Pledged No Rollback?'

Johnston, DiSalle Called In Flare-up Over Cattle Prices

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—The House agriculture committee set out today to learn what government stabilization officials told cattlemen earlier this spring about the possibility of rollbacks in cattle prices.

In an effort to "pin this down as to exactly what was said," as Chairman Cooley (D) of North Carolina, put it, the committee summoned Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston and Price Director Michael V. DiSalle.

Meanwhile, a boost in the wage ceiling was reported to be in the making and home builders' spokesmen predicted a depression if restrictions on construction are not eased or lifted.

These were the latest developments as congressional committees felt public pulses on the question of extending and broadening the government's authority to control production, prices, wages and rents.

For the last week the House agriculture committee has been hearing cattlemen, along with Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan, comment on the office of Price Stabilization rollback which went into effect last Monday.

"Cattlemen have told us," Mr. Cooley told a reporter, "that they were assured there would be no rollback. So they expanded their businesses and bought cattle. Now they are caught by the rollback."

The O.P.S. order calls for a 10 per cent average rollback in prices to be paid owners for cattle on the hoof, with additional rollbacks of 4 1/2 per cent Aug. 1 and Oct. 1. The O.P.S. estimates this will result in a saving to the consumer of some eight to 10 cents a pound for meat by fall.

"We've had some difficulty in finding out who gave assurances that there would be no rollback," Mr. Cooley said.

The chairman said that on Thursday packers and processors will be invited to testify as to their position and opinion of the rollback order.

Posts, Auxiliaries Set Annual Poppy Sales Saturday

Veterans organizations, auxiliaries and volunteers will hold their annual Poppy Day sale downtown Saturday.

Similar sales will be held in Chester and Wellsville. Midland's was held a week ago.

Ten thousand of the cloth and paper poppies will provide funds for post and auxiliary aid to disabled veterans and needy children of veterans.

Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 66 will sell 4,500 "Buddy" poppies. Jack Ryan will be chairman with members of the post, auxiliary, the Dads' organization and High School girls assisting.

The auxiliaries will have charge of the sales for the two American Legion Posts. Mrs. William P. Beck will be chairman for Auxiliary 4 and Mrs. Audrey Jackson for Auxiliary 374. No. 4 has 3,000 blooms and No. 374 2,500.

Chester's sale will be conducted by the auxiliary of American Legion Post 121, assisted by Girl Scout Troop 32. There will be a street corner sale and house-to-house canvas, Mrs. Miriam Corcoran, chairman, announced.

A Poppy Day rally will be held Thursday night at 7:30 at the Legion Home. Mayor DeMar Miller will proclaim Saturday as Poppy Day and Mrs. Twyla Finley, president of the auxiliary, and John Corcoran, commander of the post, also will speak.

Two groups will conduct the sale at Wellsville.

The auxiliary of American Legion Post 70 will sell 1,200 of the blooms, with the assistance of school children. Mrs. Helen

Battle Flares Over 'Strings' To Indian Aid

Administration Tries To Defeat Drive For Minerals In Return

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Opposition to providing American grain to help feed India's hungry millions has all but dissolved in the House, but a fight is boiling over tying strings to the aid.

With another day of debate in sight before the main votes are taken, administration leaders exuded confidence that the bill to provide Prime Minister Nehru's people money for two million tons of grain will be passed.

Their major worry is whether they can stave off proposals to require India to give to the United States, in repayment, some strategic minerals this country needs.

In a companion bill passed last week, the Senate required that the Economic Co-operation Administration, in working out details for a long-term 190-million-dollar loan to India to buy the grain, negotiate for repayment in "substantial quantities" of monazite and manganese.

No such provision is in the House bill, which would let the E.C.A. work out the credit terms as best it can.

Debaters yesterday hammered hard at the argument that the United States should not tie strings to food it offers starving people.

China Reds Retreat On Broad Front

Road Base Retaken As U.S. 10th Corps Launches Big Drive

TOKYO, May 23 (AP)—Communist troops retreated along an 80-mile front in Korea today before northward-thrusting Allied tanks and infantry.

The entire U. S. 10th Corps opened a counter-attack across the east-central front and gained up to three and a half miles. In the attacking force are the Second Infantry and First Marine divisions and other unidentified units. They recaptured Hangye, key road center.

All along the front from Munsan in the west to Pungnam in the east-central sector, the Reds are pulling back toward North Korea.

On the eastern front, Allied forces slashing through rugged mountains cut off the spearhead of the last Red offensive force of their second Spring drive.

The Allies seized a key pass on the Red Korean border for control of the main trans-Korean highway in that area. Some Red troops are pulling back in that area.

On the west-central front, an Allied spokesman said Red forces are making "hasty but orderly" withdrawals.

In the far west, South Korean troops pushed within four miles of the Red Korean border.

The valiant U. S. Second Division led today's big U. N. counter-attack across 20 miles of the east-central front.

The tanks and doughboys drove into shattered Chinese remnants after planes and massed artillery paved the way with a tree-shattering bombardment.

Lieutenant General Edward M. Almond, 10th Corps commander who ordered the counter-attack, said it "has made excellent progress." He said the Chinese took "such a beating on our front" they are "being forced to withdraw."

The Red retreat was more rapid on the adjoining west-central sector. Advancing tanks and infantrymen reported little opposition.

Attacking Marines rescued six wounded Americans who had lived through six nightmarish days in a pretty little valley that the Chinese turned into a scene of death.

Chinese hurrying northward already have pushed across the Pukhan and Choyang rivers north of Chunchon. This represented a 10-mile pull back in two days.

Hays (Kan.) Loss Estimated At Million

HAYS, May 23 (AP)—Volunteers and relief organizations today turned to the task of repairing damage and aiding victims of a fast-moving flood that swept through almost half of Hays yesterday.

At least four persons died. Two others are missing and believed drowned.

Mayor A. H. Harkness estimated property damage at more than one million dollars.

Swirling waters from normally quiet Big Creek spread over 75 blocks of this northwest Kansas town of 8,000. Hundreds of persons fled their homes.

Fort Hays State College was badly hit. No more classes will be held this semester.

During the flood, about 100 cows were trapped in a dormitory. They formed a human chain from the building to higher ground, clinging tightly to each other. The water was waist-deep and still rising when the last of the girls reached safety.

The dead include Dr. C. F. Wiest, 73, retired professor of philosophy at the college.

COLUMBUS, May 23 (UP)—Coeds at Ohio State University will keep their "powder dry" from now on, university officials said today.

The officials have received pledges from student leaders there will be no more water fights such as the sorority one Monday that turned into a near riot.

The university said no further action will be taken against nine students arrested in the melee until their cases have been heard in Municipal Court. The students were charged with disorderly conduct and are slated to appear in court within the next week.

Ronald Presutti, champion speller of Wellsville, was presented a dictionary by the Typographical Union of East Liverpool at the meeting of the Garfield Parent-Teacher Association Monday night.

Donald Cronin of The Review made the presentation. A PTA pin also was presented him by Thomas Healey.

Mrs. Betty Davis, Mrs. Virginia McFall and Mrs. Natalie Lewis were appointed as the auditing committee. Miss Edith Elkins displayed books received for winning the attendance banner two consecutive times.

Mrs. Margaret Baldwin installed Mrs. Dorothea Hamilton as secretary and she was presented a box of handkerchiefs. Mrs. Betty McDowell was in charge of the program for the final meeting of the school year. It included a piano solo by Nancy Davis and two tap dances by Margaret Ann and Jimmie Anderson. The second grade taught by Mrs. Emma Lewis won the attendance banner.

Palestine Man Fined As Crash Aftermath

EAST PALESTINE, May 23 (Special)—Alfred Barnhouse, 31, was fined $50 and costs on a reckless driving charge after pleading guilty Tuesday afternoon before Mayor Paul Merwin.

He was cited by the State Highway Patrol following an accident early Saturday at Peace Valley Park on Route 46 in which he and a passenger, David Satterfield, 17, of the East Palestine-New Waterford Road, were injured when their 1941 convertible was demolished as it rolled over three times.

At a hearing yesterday morning, John Klink, 41, Columbiana painter, was fined $50 and costs after pleading guilty to charges of intoxication and indecent exposure. He was arrested Monday night.

Trash Haul Goes On Despite Rain

The Incinerator Department went ahead with the annual city-wide spring cleanup today despite rain, after hauling 32 truck loads out of East End in the first two days of the campaign.

Superintendent James E. McKinnon said the collection in the First Ward was expedited because householders complied with instructions.

No bulky objects were put at the curb and loose material was in containers or bundled, making it easy to handle, Mr. McKinnon said.

Here's the schedule for Thursday collections:

Ravine St., Fawcett St., Bradshaw Ave., Ambrose Ave., Huston Ave., Laurel Alley, Bank St., Chester Ave., Riley Ave., Minerva St., Illinois Ave. and Oak St.

The cleanup will continue through Friday, June 1.

Burgess Joseph C. Schulte proclaimed May 27-June 2 as "Joseph Kicoski Get Well Week". A variety of events are planned by the committee under the direction of Post 481.

Noose Nears 7 Nazis As Last Appeals Fail

LANDSBERG, Germany, May 23 (AP)—Seven red-jacketed German war criminals waited out their last hours in death row today as final appeals for clemency failed.

Earlier their wives were advised the men will hang and that Thursday will be their last chance to see their husbands.

The U. S. State Department announced it has turned down last appeals and U. S. High Commissioner John J. McCloy told a news conference yesterday that as far as he is concerned the cases are closed.

This is the second time preparations have been made to hang the seven. Last February their wives were notified of "final visit day", but subsequent appeals resulted in stays of execution.

Word Awaited On Bridge Freeing

East Liverpool will learn late this week if the big stone piers supporting the state-owned Chester Bridge are in good repair, clearing the way for removal of tolls by June 15.

The State Bridge Commission of Ohio at Columbus told the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday afternoon the commission will meet "late this week" to hear a report of an underwater examination of the supports earlier this month.

The Chamber was told if the commission decides to free the bridge soon the exact time and date will be left up to local authorities, so that a ceremony can be arranged.

Meanwhile, a bill was up for State Senate passage today at Columbus to permit restoration of tolls on the Steubenville-Weirton Bridge to build up a remodeling and repair fund. It was introduced by Senator Arthur Blake of Martins Ferry, who represents the 20th-22nd District, including Columbiana County.

the pace of progress

With almost methodical regularity we hear or read of startling new discoveries in medicine. The pace of progress in research has been greatly accelerated. Hundreds of trained people are devoting their lives to organized research where there was but one a few years ago. As soon as the value of a new drug has been established, it is made available to the medical profession. A chronic condition from which you have been suffering may yield to a new treatment today. It is wiser than ever before to see your physician regularly once or twice a year. We take pride in maintaining complete stocks of the newer medicinal agents, ready to serve you on the order of your physician.

What Law And Order?

When bingo comes down to the situation it has reached in East Liverpool where the Grant St. "Civic" League is so hungry for money it won't observe the law, and the police stand by helplessly—the city administration looks pretty foolish.

It will sacrifice a fine reputation built up in the last two years on the comparatively second-class issue of a matter of law enforcement.

The Grant St. League makes the same mistake when it insists on operating in defiance of the law. Whatever charities it supports, and only the men inside it can tell you what they are, are not so all-fired important that they justify defiance of the law.

This is a simple matter of community character. If anyone—the Grant St. League or anyone else—can post a notice and say they're going to break the law on a given date, and then proceed to do it, what respect can the public have for the constituted authorities?

Schools On Short Rations

East Liverpool's worn-out schools may be typical of the rest of the country, rather than exceptional.

Reporting to the Congress of Parents and Teachers in Miami Beach, Fla., Miss Corina Mowrey, president of the National Education Association, declared financial neglect has reduced the U.S. school system to the worst condition in its history.

Because the matter of investment in the schools rests almost entirely in the hands of the citizens through their votes at the polls, spending on the schools is down to 1.84 per cent of the national income, Miss Mowrey reported.

She figured this is about one-third of the amount needed to give the country good schools and good teaching staffs.

The situation comes down to a matter of parent education; rather than child education. Adults must be made to see that a child's have his education—plus whatever native ability with which he may have been endowed—to carry him toward success in life.

Considering that parents are universally anxious to see their children successful, it's surprising how much they will hold back the child's main tool for success.

The Other Fellow's Problem

After World War I and World War II were over, it was learned by the winners that the losers were lucky to have held out as long as they did.

A tendency to overestimate the enemy's strength offsets the tendency that runs in an opposite direction before wars begin—to underestimate the strength of the potential enemy. And at the moment it is worth a little sober thought in the United States.

The time needed to do this thinking might be borrowed from the military introspection represented by the testimony of General MacArthur, General Marshall, General Bradley and those who will follow them in the Senate hearings.

In the absence of any Chinese generals or functionaries to give similar testimony for their side, the fact of their inability to crack the United Nations defense line across Korea will have to be substituted. The North Koreans could not force a victory last summer. The Red Chinese could not do it last Winter, and they have been unable to do it this Spring. They have lost a tremendous lot of face—so much that on a comparative basis the United Nations have begun to save some.

What is being represented as a hopeless cause by those who disagree with what the United States is doing in Korea may look far more hopeless from the viewpoint of a general trying to make sense of politics formed in Moscow and Peiping.

Many Tested, Few Chosen

It remains to be seen whether or not the public will learn to accept draft deferment for outstanding students on the same basis as any other kind of occupational deferment. That is the thought pattern which goes with the Selective Service aptitude test. The results of this test and the actual grades given to students already enrolled in college will be used by local draft boards in judging applications for deferment.

Only the highest grades and highest scores will count, because many will be tested, but only a few will be chosen for deferment. In nearly all cases of deferment for study, the student or his family will be paying all expenses. There will be no similarity to occupational deferments which permit the applicant to continue at a high rate of earning power. And because the men deferred are young, many of them will be available for military service for many years to come, if they are needed.

Behind The News

By George Sokolsky

What Are The Other Pressures, Professor?

I came across a letter in a newspaper by Seba Eldridge, professor of sociology at the University of Kansas.

What these professors say is only important because they influence the minds and characters of our children. The learned professor is interested in democratic collectivization—the sort of thing which they do over in England, but which the British object to when it happens in Iran. The professor approves, and says:

"With virtually no exceptions, the development of collective enterprise in the United States has been due to the pressure of consumer and public interests. Socialization has been a gradual, piecemeal, peaceful process in this country, not the kind of revolutionary action Karl Marx predicted."

"These processes and factors should be most encouraging to the American people..."

I HAVE BEEN wondering what there is to be encouraged about in all this. Perhaps Professor Eldridge is thrilled over the fact that we are achieving Karl Marx' ends without employing Karl Marx' means. Or perhaps the learned Seba-Eldridge is cheered by socialism however it may be achieved. At any rate, the letter continues:

"Violent overthrow of our institutions is ruled out. Instead, we are all involved in an orderly process of co-operation, often without realizing it, in making our institutions suit the changing needs of the people."

We may take great comfort that violence is ruled out. In a word, the American government is not to be overthrown by force and violence, but the American economic and social system is to be changed, "often without realizing it."

The object of all this is to make changes to suit the needs of the people. But that is to be decided, not by the people themselves, who, to repeat, often do not realize what is being done to them, but by so-called experts, that is, by an elite such as Hitler and Mussolini favored and Plato before them.

How foisting upon our people a vast congregation of bureaucrats, pay roll grubbers, do-nothing experts, researchers and petty officials who consume the earnings of the people by constantly forcing tax increases, improves them, is a little difficult to understand.

But maybe a sociologist can even discover a justification for a government-cultivated inflation and the checks to millions of citizens for doing nothing. The professor says:

"The instrumentalities of effecting peaceful change are a great variety of promotional agencies together with the Democratic and Republican parties."

IT WOULD be interesting if the professor wrote a learned thesis on that "variety of promotional agencies" that is bringing socialism to America.

It would be interesting to compare his data with the researches of the Hoover Commission, which sought to effect economies and failed because Mr. Truman found them politically inexpedient.

Professor Eldridge includes the Democratic and Republican parties among the agencies for socialization. Every Republican will admit that the Democrats are deserving of the insult, but in the present state of public opinion and on the approach to the 1952 campaign few Democrats will be grateful to Professor Eldridge for calling them Socialists.

He, of course, uses a fancier term, collectivists. But that is only because he is a professor and has to make things complicated. In fact, the professors have raked the dictionary for words which confuse.

I also should like to give you Professor Eldridge's definitions of democracy and totalitarianism; or to put it more simply as affecting the difference between the United States and Soviet Russia. After you have read that, you might wonder what happened to that fine boy or girl you sent to college.

"The conflict throughout the world today is largely one between democratic and totalitarian regimes. In totalitarian countries, collectivization is imposed through force by a small minority. In democratic countries, on the other hand, collective enterprises are extended in accordance with the will of the people as expressed through votes and other pressures."

I wonder what other pressures the professor has in mind! Up here in New York, they often are employed by such fellows as Frank Costello and Joe Adonis. I wonder what they have in Kansas. Maybe it is done by mink coats and such in his region.

Polishing The Brass

By Frank Tripp

It's amazing how many people will show up for a boat ride but how few come around to help polish the brass. Or maybe you don't own a boat; in which case you can apply the same idea to a square meal and the dirty dishes.

In early Spring—and it's early Spring until June up our way—just after the ice breaks up, the poor guy who owns a boat has to begin getting ready. He can hint his head off to his hot weather buddies, but do you suppose they show up? Not on your life.

When she's all dolled up, they come in flocks or get sore if they're not invited.

Unless it might be a white elephant, there's nothing a man can own that takes more time to upkeep and get ready in proportion to the time it gets used, than a boat. A 10-tonner I mean, like the Mary-Nan, not one you can tuck under the back porch.

For the 22nd year now I'm getting the old gal out of mothballs. Before she has her Spring permanent and massage she'd remind you for all the world of some human shes in the morning—before they get on their war paint. You wouldn't know her for the trim, glorious thing that floats away a few weeks later with a load of land lubbers, full of thirst, appetites and Mother Sills. I guess that's why they always call a boat "She."

MAYBE by putting in a slot machine I could afford to hire the dirty work done. I did one year—hire it done, I mean—but that was the most unhappy summer I spent on her.

Though I always crab about it, getting things shipshape and sailing her myself are the real fun of owning a boat, next to tearing her apart every few years and building her over again. I've done that so many times that I carry an affidavit from the Matthews Co. to prove that she really had legitimate parents. I feel I owe that to her.

Still nobody has ever questioned her past to the point of not going out with her, which is more than a lot of her sex can say. About the only thing they ask is "where's the opener?", once having discovered that there's something besides a jackpot to be opened; as if that wasn't why they came.

Things you wouldn't believe can happen to a boat in a York state Winter. The ones I hate most are those pesky blisters that make your last year's varnish job look like a camouflaged piano in a duck blind. To fix those, you go all the way down to the old gal's hide and start from scratch.

Then you find that the glistening port side has finished two shades lighter than the starboard and before you get through you've given your sweetheart a complete new Spring costume. Meantime, the same thing was going on in town.

YOUR FIRST MATE (galley slave, Fanny insists) started out with a new pair of gloves and ended up with a whole ensemble to match 'em. I'm sure that's not good for inflation. But I keep my big trap shut, because every time I put a buck in the boat Fanny puts two on her back. That's why they both look so well all the time. I'm for it.

Well, it won't be long now. But while the Mary-Nan was coming to voting age I have put 22 years on top of the good start that I had when I bought her.

And I've discovered something. It came on me when I was doubled up like a corkscrew, left leg in the bilge, right wedged between the generator and the reduction gear.

When I got the drain plugs back in the motor and tried to get out of what they call the engine room ("room", my eye) I couldn't budge an inch. My old joints just didn't respond and it's only good luck that I'm not pinned in there yet.

I could hear the Mary-Nan laughing at me. "So you're getting old, too," she seemed to sneer. Recalling perhaps that I've taken to calling her the Good Old Mary-Nan, which she is, bless every plank in her sturdy hull.

Anyway I'm going through the menial part now, but pretty soon; I'll be tagged in my Nannies and sailing away with the swell guys that I'm cussing because they're not around to help.

I guess, after all, that I'll need 'em more than now. What fun is a boat without a cargo of companionship?

Good News For The Free

By David Lawrence

The United States government has just decided on a policy toward the future of China which can go a long way toward healing the wounds caused by previous friction over the American official attitude toward China, particularly in Congress.

Even more profound effects throughout the world may be forecast. The whole power of moral force—which has lain dormant in recent months as physical force has necessarily been emphasized in resisting aggression—can come into play now and perhaps affect the entire situation in Asia, and possibly Europe.

The new doctrine is really a revival of the State Department's attitude toward recognition of new governments, as first expressed under President Wilson and later under a Republican secretary of state, Charles Evans Hughes. It is a bipartisan tradition.

Originally the doctrine was that no government would be recognized which came into being by military force or was not established by a free election of the people.

Today an even more vital point has been added—the United States will not extend recognition to a government which is in control of another government. The days of puppet states are over so far as diplomatic recognition is concerned.

THIS IS one of the most powerful steps that could have been taken, especially in the present situation. It was revealed by Dean Rusk, assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, in a speech before the China Society of New York.

But such addresses are never delivered without careful preparation in advance and considerable discussion among those who help to draft American foreign policy. It certainly must have had the prior approval of President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson.

The exact words of Mr. Rusk are these:

"We do not recognize the authorities in Peiping (the Red China regime) for what they pretend to be. The Peiping regime may be a colonial Russian government, a Slavic Manchukuo government on a larger scale. It is not the government of China. It does not pass the first test. It is not Chinese."

"It is not entitled to speak for China in the community of nations. It is entitled only to the fruits of its own conduct—the fruits of aggression upon which it is now willfully, openly and senselessly embarked."

"We recognize the National government of China, even though the territory under its control is severely restricted. We believe it more authentically represents the views of the great body of the people of China, particularly their historic demand for independence from foreign control. That government will continue to receive important aid and assistance from the United States."

Here is a ringing declaration that rightly ignores military supremacy as a sole criterion and goes back to America's historic policy of the days of Republican Secretary of State John Hay—the preservation of the independence and territorial integrity of China.

It is a notice to all the world that Communist China can never get American diplomatic recognition as long as it is under the Moscow yoke. It points the way to a free expression by the Chinese people of their wishes uncoerced by a foreign government. It sets a pattern for the future everywhere else and serves notice upon Russia that she cannot expect to gobble up or dismember smaller governments and obtain for them recognition by the United States.

THE MOVE will hearten immeasurably the Nationalists of Formosa and the freedom-loving elements on the mainland of China. It is a wise use of moral force at an opportune time in world history. Out of it could come a United Nations policy, too, for a committee has been at work there on new rules for admission of governments whose credentials are questioned.

Much more important, however, is the effect that the development of American policy can have on the course of Great Britain. The British have insisted that military control of a given country is enough to warrant recognition.

They now have a chance to withdraw recognition from Red China on a high moral ground and to persuade other nations to do likewise. This could result in a line-up of free nations against Red China and lead to the overthrow of the Communists.

It could conceivably mean the beginning of a course of events that might some day bring about the withdrawal of diplomatic recognition from the European puppet states or satellite governments now controlled by Moscow. It could lead some day to the withdrawal of recognition by the United States from the Moscow government which has violated the agreements made in 1933 when President Roosevelt extended recognition to the Soviets.

For the present, however, it is merely a policy that crosses the Rubicon and leaves no doubt that the Communist Chinese will not get a seat in the United Nations or win possession of Formosa. It is a ten-strike by the Washington government and when fully understood abroad will win the applause of the free nations in Europe, too.

Perpetual Motion

By Truman Twill

No one could be more eager to visit all the places popular with travelers than I am, or less eager to endure the traveling required to reach them.

If I had unlimited means to go wherever I pleased, the chances are I would please to go only to those places which could be reached in a slam-bang hurry, before the squirming and boredom began.

With all due respect to trains, I would never willingly ride more than an hour on one of the things. Planes are tolerable only as a means of getting somewhere with less inconvenience than goes with train travel. Buses are intolerable, as are private passenger cars after the first 50 miles.

It is a matter of getting impatient about being in motion. The scenery which is supposed to be the reward for grinning and bearing it has the same effect on me as too many mashed potatoes—one helping is enough. Beyond the point of satiety, scenery becomes an affliction, like too much noise.

With vacation season at hand again, the travelers will be off and away—and having the time of their lives.

I would love to be with them when they get where they are going, provided they would stay there. But as for going with them, even if I could, I would prefer to stay where I am until some way can be devised to see the world without traveling.

Desert Madness

By Raymond Moley

A Colossal Piece Of Spending

Since President Truman is the current scapegoat for all the nations' troubles, it may be refreshing to turn from his sins and shortcomings and contemplate a proposal for spending for which he has no responsibility, the central Arizona project. This is a bit of treasury-raiding upon which Congress must act without any prodding from the chief executive.

Since the project has not been headline news for two years, it may be well to refresh our memories a bit. It seems that during the war boom in agriculture, a number of farmers moved into certain areas in Arizona. Water from wells was available for a while, but, as might have been anticipated, the output from the wells declined and the farms became drier and drier.

As is often the case in our extravagant country, the farmers asked that the government bring water to them. Apparently, the old habit of moving to fresh fields has become a mere historical curiosity. The new habit is to move fresh fields to the farmer.

POLITICIANS GOT into action and a gigantic plans was made to bring water from the Colorado River at a point above the Hoover Dam. This would involve a new dam, a great pump lift to raise the water 1,000 feet, aqueducts and canals to carry the water more than 300 miles and an 80-mile tunnel. The present estimate of the cost, according to the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation, would be $708,780,000 for construction, an interest rate of 2½ per cent and a 75-year financing period. The job would require eight years in construction. An estimate of the total cost, including interest, by the secretary of the interior, is $2,075,729,000. This would be saddled upon the taxpayers of the nation.

A bitter controversy has been going on between Arizona and California about the rights to the water. That will have to be decided by the Supreme Court.

But the interest of California in the water, while very important to that state, should be a secondary matter to the taxpayers of the nation. They have an interest not in the water, but in their money.

In the House of Representatives, the Interior and insular affairs committee voted recently to "postpone" the measure until the dispute over the water is settled. This, it should be noted, was an action taken merely to postpone, rather than to reject, the plan as an unwarranted extravagance.

BUT SENATOR McFarland of Arizona, as majority leader, has a lot of power now. And so does Senator Hayden of Arizona, who ranks next to the chairman of the appropriations committee. If, as is likely, Chairman McKeller is among the missing in the next Congress, and if the Democrats control the Senate, Mr. Hayden will be chairman. Arizona will be just as dry then, so this issue will have to be watched a long, long time.

Majority Leader McFarland has announced that he will press for a vote on Senate Bill 75, which is the great project itself.

It is essential to remember that such projects have a way of getting themselves adopted piecemeal. That is, Congress authorizes a project. Then a small appropriation is made. Then a larger one and finally the project becomes a continuing one in the President's budget.

It is hoped that this colossal piece of spending for a relatively small group of farmers will be beaten and beaten decisively. And not on the mere issue of water rights, but on that of taxpayers' rights. But senators and congressmen will bear watching. Most of them are for economy in theory, but for the big grab for their own states.

Yesterdays

From The Review Files

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO—Rev. Harold G. Gaunt, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church for four years, tendered his resignation to accept a call to the Presbyterian Church at Mountville, W. Va.

A pathological department was added to the East Liverpool City Hospital to enable physicians to make laboratory tests.

A special train, carrying 120 Pittsburgh businessmen, came to East Liverpool, the first stop on a four-day trade-extension trip to 16 eastern Ohio and two western Pennsylvania communities.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—East Liverpool City Council went on record as favoring the use of brick and local labor in the improvement of Pennsylvania Ave., under the supervision of the county commissioners.

The state police post in Chester, which had been closed, was ordered reopened after protests to the governor had been filed by State Senator W. Edwin Wells.

J. A. Trotter of East Liverpool was a lay commissioner from the Steubenville Presbytery to the Presbyterian General Assembly meeting in Pittsburgh.

TEN YEARS AGO—C. F. Dallas, Allen Heddlston, W. M. Laughlin and John Bricelin were named to represent street and engineer employees in negotiations for wage increases with City Council.

W. H. Vodrey entered his three-gaited mare, Kalamara Kathlene, in the Kiwanis Club horse show to be held Memorial Day in the Akron Rubber Bowl.

M. L. Clendenning was elected chairman of Wellsville's annual homecoming celebration, scheduled for July 1-5. George Wilson and Jack Phillips were other officers.

We are trying an interesting experiment in low-price beef produced on high-priced grain. If it works, you may consider the laws of economics null and void.

My butcher says an odd thing about his customers is they all are interested in marking down his prices, but none speak of trimming their own.

But he says he doesn't care how cheaply he has to mark his mutton if he can buy what he needs at the same delicious low prices.

And we can all recall a period there under the O.P.A. when the price tags were real good reading, but there was no beef in the bowl.

West Virginia Bonds Stymied
Bidders Absent For Auction Set Today

CHARLESTON, W. Va. May 23 (AP)—West Virginia will go through the motions of a $67,500,000 bond auction today, complete except for one item—bidders. Commercial investment houses have indicated they will not bid on a revenue bond issue to finance a bonus for West Virginia veterans. The Federal Reserve national voluntary credit restraint committee considers it inflationary. The committee asked Governor Okey L. Paterson to postpone sale of the bond issue. The governor declined, saying that West Virginians had voted a constitutional amendment to assume the obligation and that he felt must carry out the voters' directive. State Treasurer William H. Ansel Jr. said no alternate course for selling the bonds could be considered until after the "opening of sealed bids," expected to be nothing more than a gesture, this afternoon in Mr. Paterson's office. The American Legion has suggested one such alternative. It mentioned the state Sinking Fund Commission, the Workmen's Compensation Commission and similar state agencies which invest large amounts of public funds, as potential purchasers. Officials have

Poland, Russia In Land Trade
Soviet Gets Rail Link, Satellite Oil And Gas

WARSAW, May 23 (AP)—Poland and the Soviet Union have agreed on an exchange of small parcels of territory on Poland's eastern frontier, giving the U.S.S.R. a link in a rail line in exchange for a piece of Ukrainian territory including an oil and natural gas area. The agreement, announced here yesterday, was signed recently in Moscow by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky and Major General Alexander Zawadzki, first vice-premier of Communist Poland. The accord calls for the resettlement of some population. It provides that in the resettlement of the Poles and Ukrainians involved, portable property may be taken with them, but real estate equipment and communications facilities must be left intact. The whole agreement is said to involve about 280 square miles of territory. The strip to be taken over by the U.S.S.R. juts out from the present Polish frontier east of Lublin. This area is crossed by a railroad which links Lvov (Lemberg) and Kowel. Both these cities are in the territory taken from Poland by the U.S.S.R. at the outset of World War II. Poland is given a strip of territory near her present southeast frontier in the region of Drogoz, which also was Polish before the Soviets marched in 1939. The exact size of the two areas involved in the territory exchange was not given. Inspired editorials in the Polish press hailed the agreement as a gain for Poland. These editorials said the land turned over to the Soviet Union was chiefly agricultural, but that Poland gained an industrially rich area. (An incomplete Moscow dispatch, passed through Soviet censorship, said the exchange was at Poland's request and brought about for economic reasons so that the areas affected would be better off.)

not commented on the suggestion. The state bonus to veterans of World Wars I and II was approved by the voters in 1950. New taxes on beer, liquor and cigarettes were levied by the 1951 legislature to finance the $90,000,000 program over a 20-year period. Bonds offered today were the first of a series. The state Department of Veterans Affairs is setting up machinery for processing and paying the claims. West Virginia veterans will get as much as $300 for domestic service, $400 if they served overseas.

Art Instructor Talks Thursday At Exhibit Here

Two lectures by Phillip Schuyler, art instructor at the College of Steubenville, are on the program for Thursday at the art exhibit currently under way at Arby's Art and Photo Shop, 416 Washington St. The exhibit features works by students from the college. It is open daily from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. Mr. Schuyler's lectures—free to the public—will be given from 2 to 3 Thursday afternoon, and from 8 to 9 Thursday night. They will review the history of painting, and the various techniques which have distinguished certain periods. Mr. Schuyler also will comment on many of the oils and water colors which are on display as part of the current exhibit here. There's only one blue-colored spice—and that's Dutch poppy seed.

Exchange Club Plans Benefit Dance Show

The Exchange Club is sponsoring a benefit show by the Agnes Bulger Dance School Tuesday night at the Memorial Auditorium. According to plans made at the club's luncheon Tuesday in the Mary Patterson Memorial, proceeds will be used for club activities. James J. McGowan, vice-president, presided for business.

Food Handler X-Rays Urged

All Connected With Public Places Invited

An appeal to all persons who handle food in public eating places — waitresses, cooks, bus boys—to take X-ray examinations while the Columbiana County Public Health League's portable equipment is here was made today by Dr. Charles A. Gerace, city health commissioner.

The appeal went out in the form of a letter signed by Dr. Gerace. It stated that the local

Man Drives Car Through Trailer After Family Spat

NEWTON, Ia., May 23 (AP)—A Newton man who drove his car through the family house trailer because he was mad at his wife wound up with a 30-day jail term.

Glen Guthrie, 24, pleaded guilty to assault and battery in connection with his fit of temper, County Attorney Arnold Myhra reported yesterday.

Mr. Myhra said the couple got into a spat and Mr. Guthrie struck his wife. She then left the Guthrie trailer home and went with their small son to a neighbor's house.

Mr. Guthrie got into his car and rammed broadside into the trailer. When the car came to a halt, the grill was sticking out of one side of the trailer and the rear bumper out the other side. The trailer and most of its contents, including a new refrigerator, were wrecked.

"We had to charge him with assault and battery for striking his wife," Mr. Myhra said. "There's nothing in the law to prohibit a man from driving his car through his own home if he wants to."

Transplanted Kidney Fails, Doctors Report After A Year

CHICAGO, May 23 (AP)—The kidney transplanted almost a year ago from a dead woman's body to that of Mrs. Howard Tucker isn't functioning.

A report made to newsmen yesterday by the public relations committee of the American Urological Association said there is no evidence that it ever did function.

It has shrunk from almost the size of a small grapefruit to that of a hazelnut and the ureter, or tube, attaching it to the bladder has pulled loose, the committee said.

However, Mrs. Tucker continues alive and well, since her other kidney is functioning, the committee added, and "her personal life expectancy is very good".

"Her life span has not been shortened in any way as a result of this operation," the committee declared. "Her other kidney is still functioning and she is doing her own housework."

The kidney that was removed had numerous cysts and was harmful to her general condition, although it had some slight function, the committee reported. The other kidney also had some cysts, but has not deteriorated in condition.

When the grafting surgery was performed in June, 1950, physicians described the operation as the first of its kind. A kidney was taken from a woman who died of a liver ailment only a few minutes before.

Subsequently, her health improved and physicians said they believed the grafted kidney had taken hold and was doing its work.

Dr. Patrick H. McNulty, urological consultant in the case, said there is no medical evidence of a successful organ transplant in humans or animals that has lasted any length of time.

Quito is the capital of Ecuador.

Two Youths Charged In Jefferson Safe Case

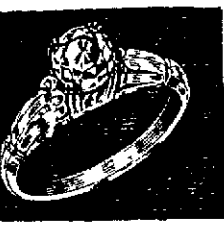

STEBENVILLE, May 23 (Special)—Sheriff Clarence A. Eberts turned two youths over to Probate Court yesterday, charging them with stealing a safe from Jefferson Union High School at near-by Richmond.

The safe was hauled from the school May 9 and its door blown open with dynamite caps at the home of one of the youths.

The sheriff said he had recovered $600, part of it burned by the explosion.

The youths are Richard Rush, 16, of Bloomfield and Harold McMillen, 16, of near Steubenville. The safe was found abandoned along a road and the youths traced from it.

Board of Health is anxious for all persons working with food to take the free examinations.

All costs are paid out of proceeds from the public's purchases of Christmas Seals.

Dr. Gerace pointed out that all findings turned up in the examinations are confidential. In the event a suspicious condition is shown in the lungs, the report is sent to the home of the person X-rayed.

One of the Health League's units will be at the First Methodist Church, and the other will operate at a different location each day to cover as many sections of the city as possible.

Retailers Reminded On Price Chart Deadline

The Office of Price Stabilization branch at Cleveland reminded today that the deadline falls May 30 for filing of pricing charts by retailers of clothing, hardware, television and radio sets and many other items.

The pricing charts must be turned in before the retailers can take their "traditional" markup margins, which the OPS said will take them out of any squeeze they might be in from wholesalers. Many wholesalers had increased prices during the base period Dec. 19-Jan. 26, which in turn had been passed on to retailers, who were "frozen" at the highest price they charged during the same period.

The retailers affected are governed by Ceiling Price Regulation 7. Filings from this district go to the Regional OPS Office, 1620 Euclid Ave., Cleveland.

Scenes In Canadian Rockies Shown Rotary

Colored pictures taken on a trip last summer through the Canadian Rockies were shown by Albert I. McLain at Tuesday's luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club in the Travelers Hotel.

More than 100 stills of mountain and lake scenery were shown by Mr. McLain, who started the trip from Chicago after the Lions' convention.

James Riggs, president-elect; H. B. Barth, secretary, and John Pryor will represent the club at the International Rotary convention opening Sunday night in Atlantic City.

Dean Wilhelm, program chairman, was unable to attend, and Howard Crossley was in charge. Some 57 members and guests were present. William B. Cooper, president, presided. Frank A. Dawson led group singing.

Could I?

This is no time to hesitate. If you like the high, handsome and heavenly appearance of the cake you see here it can easily be yours. All you do is to ask your grocer for one or both of the two new cake mixes (White or Chocolate Fudge). To these you merely add milk and you get a cake that will stir up a brand-new throb in your family's affections for you. Could you? You bet you could. Right now, too.

Remember - You and Ann Pillsbury can make a great team

Pillsbury CAKE MIXES

WHITE AND CHOCOLATE FUDGE

Just add milk —

Milk is all you add—no eggs, flavoring, or extras of any kind required. These are complete mixes.

Truman Travel Plans Denied By White House

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—The White House says that President Truman has no plans to visit Alaska or to travel abroad this summer.

Presidential Secretary Joseph Short, asked about a published report that the President will visit Detroit in July, then go to the west coast and Alaska in early August, declared:

"I never heard of any of it."

Mr. Short also was asked about a radio broadcast Sunday night that the President planned a trip to France this year.

"I never heard of it, either," he told newsmen.

The President tentatively plans to attend the 35th Division reunion at Topeka, Kan., if developments in Washington do not interfere. But Mr. Short said even that trip is "on a tentative basis."

He added that Mr. Truman has many invitations to visit various cities, but he has made no travel plans.

U.S. Wins Time In Ship Battle

Chief Justice Vinson Delays Dollar Action

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Chief Justice Vinson of the Supreme Court has given the government more time to fight its court battle for control of the American President ship lines.

Under an order from the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals here last week Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer and eight others would have gone to jail for contempt of court unless they made over effective control of the line's stock to R. Stanley Dollar and associates by 3 p. m. Thursday.

Mr. Sawyer had announced he would obey the Appeals Court order unless excused from doing so by the Supreme Court. Late yesterday, Chief Justice Vinson ordered all proceedings in the years-old case held up until the government can appeal the civil contempt conviction laid on Mr. Sawyer and his advisers by the Appeals Court.

The chief justice said he acted to give the Supreme Court time to review the issues and because "there is a direct conflict between the orders issued by the Court of Appeals and by the District Court in San Francisco."

The intricate legal tangle over ownership of the 88-million-dollar President Lines stems from a government loan in 1938 to the old Dollar Lines. As a result of the loan, 92 per cent of the line's voting stock came into the hands of the government. Subsequently, the firm was reorganized as the President Lines and the loan was paid off.

The government maintains the stock was surrendered outright for the loan by Dollar and his associates. The Dollar interests have been in court since 1945 trying to regain control, arguing that they put up the stock only as security. Now that the loan has been repaid, they say, the government should return the stock.

'Great Battles Ahead,' Ben-Gurion Declares

CLEVELAND, May 23 (AP)—The new Republic of Israel, says its prime minister, cannot assume that its independence already has been achieved.

"There are still great battles awaiting us," David Ben-Gurion declared at Hotel Tudor Arms last night in an address to spur the sale of state of Israel bonds.

He estimated that in 10 years nearly five million Jews will be settled in Israel.

Jet Base Shifted To Youngstown

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—The Air Force has received final approval to transfer its base for a proposed jet fighter squadron from Erie, Pa., to Youngstown.

The House armed services committee approved the transfer, 21 to 3, yesterday.

Representative Gavin (R) of Pennsylvania tried to prevent a final vote by suggesting that a subcommittee be appointed to inspect airports at Erie, Youngstown and Pittsburgh.

The full committee, he said, could vote more intelligently if it had a subcommittee recommendation to study.

Mr. Gavin's suggestion was turned down and the committee voted its approval.

The Senate armed services committee voted its approval previously. No further action is required. A transfer of such operations does not require a vote of the House or Senate.

The Air Force said Youngstown Municipal Airport was found to meet "all requirements and is more economical to develop."

Pope Names Sheen

WASHINGTON, May 23—Pope Pius XII has appointed Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen, noted Catholic radio orator, to be titular bishop of Caesariana and auxiliary to Francis Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York.

Kefauver Named Father Of Year

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—Senator Estes Kefauver (D) of Tennessee, former chairman of the Senate crime investigating committee, has been named "father of the year" by the National Father's Day Committee.

Mr. Kefauver, who stepped down recently as head of the famed Senate crime probers, has four children, Linda, 9, David, 5, Diane, 3, and Gail Esther, who will be a year old next October.

His selection as the nation's top father of 1951 was announced yesterday by the committee.

The committee said he was chosen for the award "because his high principled leadership of the Senate committee has dramatically aroused public consciousness and morality."

"He has made a valuable contribution to the cause of clean government and good citizenship as embodied in the tenets set up by the National Father's Day Committee," the citation added. June 17 was designated as Father's Day by the committee.

Publisher's Wife Dies

CAPE ELIZABETH, Me., May 23—Mrs. Anne M. Gannett, 68, former president of the National Federation of Music Clubs and wife of a Maine newspaper publisher and radio station owner, died at her home here yesterday after a long illness. Once active in Republican politics, Mrs. Gannett was the first G.O.P. national committeewoman from Maine.

Group Speeds Postal Boost

Backs Increase For Second-Class Mail

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—The House post office committee is ready today to put finishing touches on a bill boosting postal rates.

Proposed increases, however, are not big enough to wipe out the current post office operating deficit, estimated at 500 million dollars this year.

The committee yesterday approved increased mailing rates for second-class matter, such as newspapers and publications. It previously had voted increases in first-class mail charges.

Still to be considered are administration requests for more revenue from third-class mail and from special services.

The committee is not considering parcel post rates. The Interstate Commerce Commission recently approved a 25 per cent boost in those charges in a move to add 105 million dollars to revenues from that source. It will be effective Oct. 1.

Chairman Murray (D) of Tennessee told newsmen he expects the House committee to finish writing the rate increase bill today and said he wants to have it ready for House consideration later this month.

The House passed a rate increase bill in the last Congress, but the Senate ignored it.

The committee already has voted tentatively to double the present one-cent rate on picture post cards and government postal cards and to boost second-class rates eventually by 60 per cent.

Radio In Review

By JOHN CROSBY

The French Language

FRENCH IS AN eloquent language which must be seen to be fully understood or sometimes even to be comprehended at all. That is why the telephone has always defeated the French. The shrugs, the gestures, the rolling eyes, the expressive hands are missing on the telephone, which means the nuances—the essence of the message to be conveyed—are missing, too. Sometimes two Frenchmen can't understand each other on the telephone.

That means that radio is not for the French. The machine talks, yes, but it doesn't really talk. About 30 per cent of the French language cannot be conveyed by a box which simply stands there motionless.

The box has no soul. The French, therefore, simply have walked away from radio as we know it and employ it largely as an instrument for the diffusion—which is the French way of saying broadcasting—of music.

The three national French networks—Programme Nationale, Program Parisienne and Paris-Inter (Only God and the French know what Paris-Inter means)—sound to these untrained American ears pretty much like WNEB and WQXR in New York.

You get a mixture of popular and classical music on all three, though Programme Nationale is likely to be a little heavier in density than the other two. Apart from news, you won't hear much talk, which is all right with me.

TURN A radio on in a French hotel and you'll think you're home again. In comes Mademoiselle Judy Garland singing I'm Tired of the City dans cette langue barbare, Anglais. American popular music is just as popular here as it is in America. Of course, it's not always sung in English.

One of the most exquisite experiences I have yet had in Paris is listening to Bewitched, Bothered and Bewildered sung in French.

The great thing about Bewitched, Bothered and Bewildered sung in French is that the mood of the song is completely transformed. It becomes unchanson Parisien—haunting, delicate and somehow more elegant than the love song Rogers and Hart had in mind when they wrote it.

I might add that this applies equally well to American songs sung in English—if sung by the French. A French chanteuse singing The Lady Is A Tramp in English—or what she thinks is English—is as French as the Rue de la Paix. In fact, it would be more comprehensible if she sang it in French.

THE FRENCH simply don't understand what the Voice of America is talking about. They find the Voice not only bewildering but faintly ludicrous. I'm inclined to agree. One program for example, is called Ici New York, which is roughly comparable to "And now—we give you San Francisco." Or in this case, New York.

This is likely to start out with some such vital message from the American people as this: "Nous voila au Stork Club. Monsieur Billingsley nous dit bon soir et puis voila une franchise. On l'a reconnait comme chic Parisienne de son chapeau. Je vous presente Morton Downey. Il est un fameux chanteur de ballades Irlandaises."

The average Parisian doesn't know what the Stork Club is and couldn't care less about Monsieur Sherman Billingsley. Much of the Voice's message here consists of

Cut In Housing Units Battled By President

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—President Truman has urged Congress to reject a House-approved curb on the number of public housing units which may be started in the coming year.

In a letter to Senator Maybank (D) of South Carolina, yesterday, Mr. Truman said the House action in cutting the number of housing units which may be started in the year beginning July 1 from 75,000 to 5,000 would virtually kill the program.

Malone Talks On In Bid To Change Trade Pact Setup

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—It's up to strong-lunged Senator Malone (R) of Nevada whether the Senate will get down to voting today on the reciprocal trade agreements extension.

Mr. Malone already has held the floor 10 hours in a fight to defeat extension of the trade program in its present form.

He told a reporter he plans to make a new speech on his substitute proposal today. He would not estimate its length.

After appearing ready to talk into the night, the Nevada senator yielded the floor late yesterday when Senator George (D) of Georgia said he was ill. Mr. George, floor manager for the extension act, was the only other senator present except for the presiding officer. Mr. Malone planned to take up again today.

His substitute would take away from the President and State Department the authority to negotiate trade pacts. The power would go to a foreign trade authority.

A number of Republican senators concede the substitute will not be approved. They gave Mr. Malone little help in his prolonged oratory.

Clergyman, 95, Outlives His Insurance Policy

CHICAGO, May 23 (AP)—A 95-year-old clergyman has become the beneficiary of his own insurance policy which he had taken out 53 years ago.

Dr. Joseph H. Gauss has exceeded the life span covered by the insurance mortality tables and yesterday he received $2,931 from the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. The payment was made on the annual premium due nearest the 98th birthday. Mr. Gauss will be 96 Aug. 30.

An insurance company official said only about three persons in 1,000 can expect to reach 96. He said statistics show there are only about seven persons in 100,000 now living in the United States who are 96 or older.

Smoke And Drink, Specialist Tells Heart Patients

BOSTON, May 23 (AP)—A Philadelphia heart specialist says its perfectly all right for a heart patient to smoke, provided he also takes "a good slug" of alcohol at times.

Dr. William D. Stroud explains that the alcohol offsets the constricting effect of nicotine on the coronary blood vessels.

In an address before the 170th meeting of the Massachusetts Medical Society last night, Dr. Stroud advocated a more normal life for heart patients on the grounds deprivation of too many things leads to frustration.

"And frustration," he said, "raises the blood pressure, which is bad for the heart."

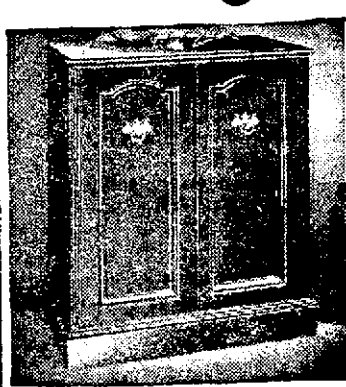

"I think we doctors try to prolong life in these coronary cases by making life just as miserable as possible."

Laughlins Nip Irishtown, 9-8, In 8th On Dick Dunlevy's Single

Wilson's Move Into 2nd By Blasting Elks, 14-4

Dick Dunlevy's single in the eighth inning sent Leroy Rardin across with the winning run Tuesday night at Newell as Homer Laughlin knocked off Irishtown, 9-8, despite Jim Hamilton's grand slam home run and Manager Bob Campbell's three-run circuit clout to tie the game in the seventh.

Meanwhile, Wilson's Market continued its hitting spree, pounding out 16 hits, in trouncing the Elks, 14-4, for the Lodgemen's sixth straight loss.

The Wellsville victory and the Irish defeat lifted Wilson's into second place and dropped Irishtown into third. The Irish have a chance to climb into a three-way tie for first if they can beat Golden Star tonight at Newell in the only game scheduled.

Seven Irishtown errors didn't make the pitching any easier for Dick Chamberlain and Bill Shaylor. Shaylor was the loser.

The Irish got off to a four-run lead in the first inning when Hamilton smashed his circuit blast after singles by George Sachs and Campbell and a walk to Dick Owens loaded the bases after two were out. It was the second grand slam of the season, Schneidmiller clouting one for the Elks.

Harold Kelly singled in the fifth for the Irish but was forced by Sachs, who went to second on an error on an attempted double play. Campbell's second safety played Sachs.

Laughlins got two back in the fourth on Bill Martin's base hit, a walk to Dunlevy and a single by McNicol for one run. Ron Laneve's safety sent Dunlevy across.

They added four in the fifth on a single by Frank Gibas, an error and Martin's second hit to fill the bases. Dunlevy came through with a sock to register two runs. Johnny Laneve batted for Johnson and doubled to plate the other two.

Two errors and singles by Ron Stephens and Dunlevy netted two more runs in the sixth.

Trailing by three runs going into the seventh, the Irish succeeded in deadlocking the score. Shaylor hit for Chamberlain and singled. Miles and Reed went down on strikes but Sachs singled to set the stage for Campbell's blast.

Rardin opened the eighth for Laughlins with a safety and took second on an outfield error. He held second as Vern Jones made a fine stop on Stephens' smash. Martin walked out but Dunlevy lined a single over first base to register Rardin.

Dunlevy and Campbell collected three hits apiece, and along with Hamilton, drove in four runs each.

U. S. Champ Clips British Golf Favorite

PORTHCAWL, Wales, May 23 (AP)—American dominance of the British Amateur golf championship may rankle in the hearts of all British golf enthusiasts, but they try hard not to show it.

That was demonstrated yesterday when more than 100 galleries walked around the 6,658-yard Porthcawl course in a raging gale to watch Sam Urzetta, 25-year-old ex-caddie from Rochester, N. Y., chop down a local favorite, Steve Tredinnick, 3 and 2.

True Sam is the U. S. amateur champion, a title that would be a drawing card anywhere. But he also has the appeal of a fighting link competitor and one who has battled his way to the top over a rocky course.

Many Britons still think all American golfers are millionaires and it comes as a surprise to them that the top ranking U. S. amateur once toted bags for pocket money. So Sam, whose golf manners rate favorably with those of any English public school graduate, has won himself a substantial following among the paying public.

Urzetta hasn't yet shown here the flashing game that flattened the current British titleholder, Frank Stranahan, in the 39-hole final of the U. S. Amateur in the States last year.

"The rain and the wind don't bother me," Urzetta said after a so-so performance yesterday. "Most of my trouble is with my short irons. They're not crisp enough. But I may get that touch back Wednesday. If I do I hope to be staying around for a while."

Urzetta was paired against John Mill of Scotland in today's third round.

Stranahan runs smack into a Walker Cup teammate today when he tangles with Bob Knowles of Boston. The other 11 Americans still in the running are paired against domestic or overseas hopes from outside the United States.

ABC Leaders Appear Safe; 12 Days Left

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 23 (AP)—With only 12 days remaining in the 48th annual American Bowling Congress Tournament, it appeared today that the current leaders have a good chance of being the 1951 ABC bowling champions. But, veteran kiegiers say, anything can happen in an ABC tourney.

Outside of a few possible changes in the five-man event, it looks like the 10 leaders in the three individual events will be the same on June 3 when the 58-day meet ends as they are today.

The current doubles leaders, Bob Benson and Eddie Marshall of Lansing, Mich., took the lead on April 15, the second week end of the meet. And their 1,334 total has withstood the firing of 20,000 bowlers in the last six weeks.

Lee Jougard of Detroit, who established an all-time ABC record with his 775 in the singles, went into the lead on May 7. That same day a teammate on the Stroh's quint, Tony Lindeman, took the all-events lead with 2,005.

There have been four changes in the team event in the past nine days, with the current leaders, the C. B. O'Malley five of Chicago, assuming their post on May 13. ABC officials figure the O'Malley's leading total of 3,070 highest in six years, is fairly safe.

The best rolling yesterday was a 1,238 count by Paul Slusser and C. L. Henderson of Bellefontaine, O., in the doubles. Henderson shot a 671 series.

Charles Williams with three hits in four times at bat and Don Glenn with two for three paced Liverpool.

Sutherland, Karaffa and Lastivka led Toronto with two each.

Charles Declares Maxim Won't K.O. Him In Title Go

CHICAGO, May 23 (AP)—Heavyweight Champion Ezzard Charles says Challenger Joey Maxim couldn't knock him out if "I dropped my hands and stuck my chin out as a target for his best punches."

Light Heavyweight Champion Maxim, who shoots for Charles' heavyweight crown in Chicago Stadium next Wednesday night, has predicted he will win by a knockout.

Charles was reminded that Maxim kayoed Freddy Mills for the lightweight title in London 16 months ago.

"I'm not Freddy Mills," retorted Charles.

Meanwhile, Jack Kearns, Maxim's manager, declared he would urge the Illinois State Athletic Commission to assign three referees to officiate the title bout.

"I want the two idle referees to serve as judges," said Kearns. "The other three times Maxim boxed Charles we received the referee's vote but the judges gave the fight to Ezzard each time. My contention is that referees are the most qualified to judge such a close battle."

1951 White Sox Threaten To Duplicate Feat Of 1919 Club

Only Two Games Back Of Loop-Leading Yanks

By JOE REICHLER, Associated Press Sports Writer
Shades of 1919? Can the 1951 Chicago White Sox duplicate the feat of their predecessors of 32 years ago? And we don't mean "throw" the World Series.

The similarity between the two clubs is striking. Both finished in sixth place the previous campaign. Both began the new season under new leadership. Both were picked to finish deep in the second division. And both got off to flying starts.

The 1919 Sox, ably piloted by freshman Manager Bill (Kid) Gleason, went on to win the pennant. Can the '51 Sox, under the leadership of newcomer Paul Richards, do the same?

The pennant still is nothing more than a beautiful dream. But the current crew is threatening to achieve something that has eluded all other White Sox teams. Richards' astonishing athletes need only to win tonight and tomorrow in Philadelphia to complete a clean sweep on their rampaging tour through the eastern badlands.

The White Sox began the trip by trouncing the Red Sox twice in Boston. Nobody can recall when a Chicago team ever did that before. Then they whipped the Yankees in New York. That was the only victory by a visiting club at Yankee Stadium in 14 games this season. Last night they whipped the Senators in Washington for the third straight time, 9-8. That made it six victories in a row, nine of 11 on the road this year, and 18 wins against nine defeats for the season.

Yesterday's triumph kept the club in second place, two lengths in back of the defending champion Yankees, who beat the St. Louis Browns, 6-1. Boston's Red Sox tamed the Detroit Tigers, 6-3, to move past Washington into fourth place, a half game behind the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-2, in a night affair.

They registered five in the first on two hits, a triple by Heath and a single by Chisler along with three miscues and the same number of bases on balls.

Four more scored in the fourth after two were out on Zubay's two-bagger and singles by Bray, Nuzum and Chisler. Two were out in the sixth when a walk, Huff's double and two errors allowed three runs to score.

The final run crossed the plate in the seventh on Bray's three-base wallop, two errors and singles by Huff, Melvin and Heath. Vitrified netted four runs in the third on singles by Ross and Bryson, an error, Kelly's three-bagger and Garrett's single.

Butler's safety, two walks, Kelly's one-base rap and Williams' home run produced four more runs in the fourth. Singles by Komo and Butler and Jarrett's triple accounted for the last two runs in the seventh.

Chisler paced the winners with three hits while Butler connected three times for the losers.

1,200 Athletes To Seek State Titles This Week

By FRITZ HOWELL
COLUMBUS, O., May 23 (AP)—More than 1,200 high school athletes, survivors of some 28,000 who started the season, descend on Columbus this week end for the four-sport spring championships. The contestants are survivors of district and regional meets held last Saturday, the outstanding stars winning their way into the 44th annual track, the 24th annual baseball, 25th annual golf and 32nd annual tennis tournaments.

All competition in the two-day program is scheduled at Ohio State University's athletic plant.

The four Class A and a four Class B baseball teams still in the race are all that remain of 898 starters. Pairings will be made at 6 p. m. Thursday at the Ohio State Golf Club for Friday's diamond encounters between Cleveland East, Portsmouth, Linden McKinley and Cincinnati Western Hills in Class A, and Lima St. Rose, Roscoe, Navarre and Beaver Creek in Class B. Cincinnati Withrow and Amelia won titles a year ago, assuring two new champs.

Golf pairings are scheduled at noon Friday at the University golf course for teams representing Mansfield, Findlay, Youngstown Rayen, Kent, Circleville, Upper Arlington, Chillicothe, Lancaster, Toledo Devilliss, Sylvania Burrham, Cincinnati Withrow and Norwood. Toledo Devilliss won the 1950 team championship.

Pairings for the tennis tournament will be made at the Buckeye stadium at 10 a. m. Friday. For the first time in years Cincinnati Walnut Hills, which swept the laurels a year ago, has no tennis entries.

Battling for the singles crown was a year ago by John Raub of Walnut Hills will be Blanford Fuller of Akron South, Dick Klitch of Portsmouth, Walter Melbourne of Toledo Devilliss, McKay of Dayton Oakwood, Sheldon Wyman of East Cleveland Shaw, Brockhoff of Cincinnati Purcell, Jim Hurlbert of Salem, Keith Hanlon of Bexley, Bud Anderson of Fremont Ross, Fryman of Dayton Stivers, Bruce Ohman of Shaker Heights, and Brown of Wyoming—the latter the only Class B individual to qualify.

Hamilton Public and Cincinnati Purcell qualified tennis doubles teams, along with Don Clark-Gary Tallmadge of Cuyahoga Falls, Jim Poland-Don Ring of Barborton, Dick Fryman-Dave James of Granville, George Souder - Howard Hirsch of Bexley, Fritz Haring-Bill Beale of Mansfield, Bill Leaks-Larry Resnick of Toledo Devilliss, Hackney-Wells of Middletown, and Dave and Doug Boyle of Dayton Fairview. Barrie Rich and John Bowling of Walnut Hills won the meet a year ago.

The track scrap looks like a race between Cleveland East Tech, Columbus Central, Mansfield, Springfield and defending champion Cincinnati Central Vocational in Class A, with a wide open Class B fight in prospect.

Winners of the district track meets, with their point totals, were:
Class A—Lima Central 58, Mansfield 94, Cincinnati Central Vocational 67½, Cleveland East Tech 73, Cleveland Central 63½, Springfield 75 3/5, Marietta 97½, Bellaire 61, Columbus Central 66 and Warren 36 1/5.

Class B—Clyde 65, Berlin Heights 25 7/10, Anderson Township (Cincinnati) 51 1/5, Xenia Woodrow Wilson 36 1/5, Oberlin 55, Coolville 46, Belpre 68, Marysville 52½, Brecksville 69 and Poland 52. Wyoming won the Class B championship in 1950.

Heats for Friday's qualifiers will be set up Thursday afternoon and evening.

Bucs Get Southpaw

PITTSBURGH, May 23 (UP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates added Southpaw Pitcher Paul LaPalme to their staff today in hopes that he can give them more strength on the portside. LaPalme was purchased from Indianapolis last night. The Bucs in turn sent Pitcher Bill Piro, who has been ill most of the season, to the American Association club. The Pirates also sent Outfielder Ted Beard to the Indians.

Weirton Stars Cited

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., May 23 (AP)—Two Weirton football players have been added to the North lineup for the North-South football game to be in Charleston, Aug. 17, Coach Jimmy Scott of Parkersburg announced. The players named were Mickey Rich, quarterback, and Jim Bryan, lineman.

Squeeze Play On Rose Bowl Game Looms

CHICAGO, May 23 (AP)—A squeeze play on the Rose Bowl football game probably will begin tomorrow between the Big Ten and the Pacific Coast Conference.

The Big Ten faculty representatives and athletic directors, in a showdown vote on the bowl question, are expected to approve continued play in the Pasadena classic in a nip-and-tuck ballot.

But the anticipated 6 to 4 sanction of extension of the five-year bowl pact which ended last New Year's Day undoubtedly will be restricted to a limit of one appearance every three years by the same team.

The Pacific loop, however, is reported to be violently opposed to anything except an every-other-year limit. The two conferences have agreed to a mutual method of selecting bowl contenders.

While the possibility exists that the Big Ten may kill bowl renewal on the first ballot tomorrow—and a 5 to 5 deadlock would do it—all signs point towards an okay of the once-every-three-years restriction.

That would dump the issue into the lap of the Pacific Coast circuit for final disposal. During the past series, the P.C.C. sent its champion into the bowl game every year, while the Big Ten observed a once-every-three-years limit. Yet the Big Ten won all five games.

Tomorrow's deliberations follow a 60-day study period by the individual schools on bowl approval voted by Big Ten athletic leaders last March.

Board Backs Sanitary Plan For Glenmoor

City's Health Group Urges County Obtain School Improvement

The East Liverpool Board of Health Tuesday night said it supports plans to establish a sanitary district in Glenmoor.

Action followed a letter from Dr. Robert Dunlap, county health commissioner, that tentative plans for such a system for the fast-growing section of St. Clair Township have been "taken under advisement".

The letter was in response to a complaint made to the local department recently that raw sewage had been found in open ditches in the vicinity of the Glenmoor School.

The sewage came from septic tanks of homes near the school, school officials said.

The commissioner said the "only solution" to the Glenmoor problem is for installation of sanitary sewers.

He said the County Board "does not feel justified in taking individual action against the property owners in this area, which would result in costly unfairness to the individuals with no ultimate improvement in sanitary conditions".

Sanitary Inspector Septimus Cook said A. L. Fishback, Ohio Department of Public Health consultant, viewed conditions in and around the school last week.

Mr. Cook said he recommended changes in the septic tank disposal plant at the school during the summer.

The local board, in its inquiry as to progress of plans for sewerage in the district, urged that temporary steps be taken by the county board during the summer to improve the situation in the vicinity of the school before classes resume in the fall.

Mrs. Jeannette Carpenter, nurse, reported on the annual Ohio Public Health Conference May 10-11 in Columbus.

Dr. Charles A. Gerace, city health commissioner, said two new tuberculosis cases were diagnosed the past month. Since April 24, 62 residents of East Liverpool received Columbiana County Clinic X-ray examinations at Lisbon.

Two new venereal cases also were reported. The department has 57 orthopedic cases in its records.

Mrs. Ruth Cramer, register of vital statistics, reported 117 births—59 males—the past four weeks. Sixty-four were born to East Liverpool parents.

During the same period there were 27 deaths—16 males. Eighteen were residents.

Mr. Cook reported 180 inspections and investigations.

A special meeting of the board will be held Tuesday, June 5, for an inspection of the Maternity Departments of City Hospital and the Osteopathic Hospital. They have applications for renewal of permits.

Club Will Visit Flower Gardens

The Wellsville Glad-Dahlia Club is planning a tour June 3 of the Bellevue Farm near Chargin Falls, horticultural gardens of Western Reserve University, Mrs. Maude Crawford, president, announced. Other gardens in the vicinity will be visited.

It has one of the largest herb plots in the country and there are 8,000 varieties of iris, also peonies, roses, delphinium and other late spring flowers. The farm is under Thomas Manley, professor of Horticulture at the university and assistant director of Greater Cleveland Garden Center.

Anyone interested in making the trip should call Mrs. Crawford, 862-M; Mrs. Ruth Fitzsimmons, 1187-J, or Ruth Urie, 499. Reservations for the bus must be in by Sunday. Pick-ups will be made in Wellsville and East Liverpool.

Any person who wishes to visit the Crawford garden on Buckeye Ave. is welcome. Tuesday there were 24 varieties of iris in bloom.

Ship Shellings Leave 3 Dead

9 Others Injured By Red Shore Batteries

TOKYO, May 23 (AP)—Communist shore fire hit the 45,000-ton battleship New Jersey and the Destroyer Brinkley Bass off the northeast Korean port of Wonsan, killing three and injuring nine sailors.

Vice Admiral C. Turner Joy said today one man was killed and three were injured Sunday when a shell exploded near the New Jersey. The mighty battlewagon, sister ship of the Missouri and just recently out of mothballs, had fired her first shot in the Korean action only the day before.

One man was killed outright on the destroyer and seven were wounded. One of the wounded died Monday. Two others still are in serious condition.

In Washington, the Navy said the two ships were at anchor shelling shore installations. A Navy spokesman said ships usually keep moving while firing on ground targets, but sometimes anchor where they have the best field of fire on fixed positions.

Biggest Non-Atom Blast Rocks Desert In Utah

DUGWAY, Utah, May 23 (AP)—A blast one-fifth as strong as an atom bomb shook the western Utah desert yesterday, but, aside from a dust cloud, effects were barely visible from three and a half miles.

The explosion—conducted by the Army engineers—was described as the strongest non-atomic blast ever touched off.

One hundred sixty tons of TNT were detonated beneath the surface of the ground. Spectators saw the ground shudder, then the blast burst through the surface and sent a cloud of smoke and dust boiling to an estimated height of 2,000 feet.

The explosion was part of experiments to determine the effect of underground blasts on varying types of construction. It was the biggest blast in a series of experiments which have been under way for three years.

The engineers refused to discuss it except in general terms.

Panel Discussion Held By Flower Club

A panel discussion on care of the lawns and shrubbery was conducted by Frank Richmond at a meeting of the Chester Flower and Garden Club Tuesday night at the American Legion Home.

Participating were Dale Finley, president, Frank Shone of East Liverpool, and Oliver Johnson, Hancock county agricultural agent.

A tape recording on "Japanese Beetle Control" was presented by Frank Bishop, entomologist at West Virginia University.

The program included vocal and instrumental novelty numbers by Robert Hobbs, Rex Cowey, Keith Carpenter, Bill Stafford and Robert Wilson.

The club will meet June 26.

Wide Probe Of Spies Hinted As Jury Meets

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—A super-secret federal grand jury newly sworn in here, is expected to conduct a wide probe of spying and other subversive activities.

Communists from all over the country may be called as witnesses.

The grand jury, which began deliberations yesterday, is under special orders from Judge Henry W. Goddard emphasizing secrecy.

The instructions which Judge Goddard gave the 19 men and four women, who were sworn in Monday, gave rise to unofficial reports that they will consider matters of the utmost importance.

LEGAL NOTICES

Ordinance Number 4145-1951

AN ORDINANCE TO BORROW MONEY AND ISSUE NOTES IN ANTICIPATION OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS FOR THE PAYMENT OF THE CITY'S SHARE AND IN ANTICIPATION OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS FOR THE LEVY OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS FOR IMPROVEMENTS OF WEST SEVENTH STREET FROM PERSIMMON ALLEY TO MONROE STREET BY GRADING, CURBING AND PAVING.

WHEREAS the City Council has requested the City Auditor to certify as to the estimated life of the improvement to be constructed from the proceeds of the bonds hereinafter referred to and of the notes to be issued in anticipation of said bonds, and the City Auditor has certified to this Council such estimated life as exceeding 10 years and has further certified the maximum maturity of such bonds as 10 years and such notes as 2 years.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED BY the Council of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio: SECTION 1 That it is deemed necessary to do so and the Mayor and Auditor be and they are hereby authorized to execute and deliver and issue notes of the City of East Liverpool, in accordance with Section 2283-24 and 2283-25 of the General Code, in an amount not to exceed $8596.84 in anticipation of the issuance of bonds for the payment of the City's share of the cost of said improvement 2283-25 of the General Code and in anticipation of the levy of assessments and of the issuance of bonds as provided in said Section 2283-25 of the General Code, for the following improvement, to wit:

FROM PERSIMMON ALLEY TO MONROE STREET, by grading, curbing and paving in accordance with Resolution Number 1207 passed December 7th 1949 and Ordinance Number 4090 passed March 6th 1950.

SECTION 2 The money received by the issuance of said notes shall be used for the purpose of paying the rate of interest on said notes according to contracts heretofore made or hereafter made for said improvement. Said notes shall be issued from time to time and in such amounts as necessary according to the contracts, but the total sum of the notes issued pursuant to this Ordinance shall not exceed the principal sum of $8596.84.

Said notes shall be signed by the Mayor and Auditor of said City and sealed with the corporate seal of said City.

Said notes shall be dated the date of issue and shall bear interest at the rate of not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum payable semi-annually. Said notes shall be due and payable not later than two years from the date of issue. Provided, however, that such notes shall be redeemable at any interest period. Both principal and interest shall be payable at the office of the Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool. Each note shall express upon its face the purpose for which it is issued and that it is issued in pursuance of this Ordinance and under authority of the General Code and the General Laws of the State of Ohio and particularly Sections 2283-24 and 2283-25 of the General Code of Ohio, and said notes shall bear the name of the improvement for which they are issued, legibly written or printed upon them as follows:

WEST SEVENTH STREET FROM PERSIMMON ALLEY TO MONROE STREET PAVING IMPROVEMENT NOTES.

SECTION 3 That said money so received by the issuance of said notes shall be placed to the credit of the following fund and in the amount there of:

WEST SEVENTH STREET FROM PERSIMMON ALLEY TO MONROE STREET PAVING IMPROVEMENT FUND $8596.84 and shall be deemed appropriated for the use for which it was borrowed and shall not be used for any other purpose.

SECTION 4 That the Director of Public Service be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue vouchers to the City Auditor for payments due under said contracts from said funds.

SECTION 5 For the payment of the principal and interest of said notes the full faith and credit and revenues of the City of East Liverpool be and they are hereby irrevocably pledged.

SECTION 6 The proceeds of the bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments and all portions thereof, together with interest thereon, and the proceeds of the bonds to be issued to pay the City's share of said improvements and all unexpended balances remaining unpaid in the funds after the cost and expenses of the improvements have been paid shall be applied to the payment of said notes and interest thereon as the same shall become due and to no other purpose whatsoever until all of said notes and said interest have been fully paid.

SECTION 7 That for the purpose of providing the necessary funds to pay the interest on the foregoing issue of notes promptly when and as the same falls due and also provide a fund sufficient to discharge the said notes at maturity, there shall be and is hereby levied on all the taxable property in said City of East Liverpool in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually during the period for which said notes are due and in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay interest upon said notes as and when the same falls due and also to provide a fund for the discharge of the principal of said notes at maturity, which said tax shall not be less than the interest and sinking fund tax required by Section 11 of the Article XI of the Constitution.

Said tax shall be and is hereby levied, computed, certified and levied upon the tax duplicate and collected by the same officers in the same manner and at the same time as the taxes for general purposes and said years are certified extended and collected. Said tax shall be placed by the City Auditor to a special fund for said years and for the full amount thereof. The funds derived from said tax levies hereby required shall be placed in a separate and distinct fund and shall be together with the interest collected on the same shall be irrevocably pledged for the payment of the interest and principal of said notes when and as the same fall due.

SECTION 8 That said tax shall be reduced or withheld from the tax duplicate to the extent that the money received in payment of said special assessments or the money received as the proceeds of the bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of said assessments or the money received as the proceeds of the bonds issued to pay the City's share of the cost of said improvement is actually in the fund available for the payment and appropriation only for payment of said notes and interest.

SECTION 9 That is Ordinance shall be and is hereby in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

SECTION 3 That said money so received by the issuance of said notes shall be placed to the credit of the following fund and in the amount there of:

WEST SEVENTH STREET FROM PERSIMMON ALLEY TO MONROE STREET PAVING IMPROVEMENT FUND $8596.84 and shall be deemed appropriated for the use for which it was borrowed and shall not be used for any other purpose.

SECTION 4 That the Director of Public Service be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue vouchers to the City Auditor for payments due under said contracts from said funds.

SECTION 5 For the payment of the principal and interest of said notes the full faith and credit and revenues of the City of East Liverpool be and they are hereby irrevocably pledged.

SECTION 6 The proceeds of the bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments and all portions thereof, together with interest thereon, and the proceeds of the bonds to be issued to pay the City's share of said improvements and all unexpended balances remaining unpaid in the funds after the cost and expenses of the improvements have been paid shall be applied to the payment of said notes and interest thereon as the same shall become due and to no other purpose whatsoever until all of said notes and said interest have been fully paid.

SECTION 7 That for the purpose of providing the necessary funds to pay the interest on the foregoing issue of notes promptly when and as the same falls due and also provide a fund sufficient to discharge the said notes at maturity, there shall be and is hereby levied on all the taxable property in said City of East Liverpool in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually during the period for which said notes are due and in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay interest upon said notes as and when the same falls due and also to provide a fund for the discharge of the principal of said notes at maturity, which said tax shall not be less than the interest and sinking fund tax required by Section 11 of the Article XI of the Constitution.

Said tax shall be and is hereby levied, computed, certified and levied upon the tax duplicate and collected by the same officers in the same manner and at the same time as the taxes for general purposes and said years are certified extended and collected. Said tax shall be placed by the City Auditor to a special fund for said years and for the full amount thereof. The funds derived from said tax levies hereby required shall be placed in a separate and distinct fund and shall be together with the interest collected on the same shall be irrevocably pledged for the payment of the interest and principal of said notes when and as the same fall due.

SECTION 8 That said tax shall be reduced or withheld from the tax duplicate to the extent that the money received in payment of said special assessments or the money received as the proceeds of the bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of said assessments or the money received as the proceeds of the bonds issued to pay the City's share of the cost of said improvement is actually in the fund available for the payment and appropriation only for payment of said notes and interest.

SECTION 9 That is Ordinance shall be and is hereby in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

LEGAL NOTICES

Ordinance Number 4145-1951

AN ORDINANCE TO BORROW MONEY AND ISSUE NOTES IN ANTICIPATION OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS FOR THE PAYMENT OF THE CITY'S SHARE AND IN ANTICIPATION OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS FOR THE LEVY OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS FOR IMPROVEMENTS OF WEST SEVENTH STREET FROM PERSIMMON ALLEY TO MONROE STREET BY GRADING, CURBING AND PAVING.

WHEREAS the City Council has requested the City Auditor to certify as to the estimated life of the improvement to be constructed from the proceeds of the bonds hereinafter referred to and of the notes to be issued in anticipation of said bonds, and the City Auditor has certified to this Council such estimated life as exceeding 10 years and has further certified the maximum maturity of such bonds as 10 years and such notes as 2 years.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED BY the Council of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio: SECTION 1 That it is deemed necessary to do so and the Mayor and Auditor be and they are hereby authorized to execute and deliver and issue notes of the City of East Liverpool, in accordance with Section 2283-24 and 2283-25 of the General Code, in an amount not to exceed $8596.84 in anticipation of the issuance of bonds for the payment of the City's share of the cost of said improvement 2283-25 of the General Code and in anticipation of the levy of assessments and of the issuance of bonds as provided in said Section 2283-25 of the General Code, for the following improvement, to wit:

FROM PERSIMMON ALLEY TO MONROE STREET, by grading, curbing and paving in accordance with Resolution Number 1207 passed December 7th 1949 and Ordinance Number 4090 passed March 6th 1950.

SECTION 2 The money received by the issuance of said notes shall be used for the purpose of paying the rate of interest on said notes according to contracts heretofore made or hereafter made for said improvement. Said notes shall be issued from time to time and in such amounts as necessary according to the contracts, but the total sum of the notes issued pursuant to this Ordinance shall not exceed the principal sum of $8596.84.

Said notes shall be signed by the Mayor and Auditor of said City and sealed with the corporate seal of said City.

Said notes shall be dated the date of issue and shall bear interest at the rate of not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum payable semi-annually. Said notes shall be due and payable not later than two years from the date of issue. Provided, however, that such notes shall be redeemable at any interest period. Both principal and interest shall be payable at the office of the Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool. Each note shall express upon its face the purpose for which it is issued and that it is issued in pursuance of this Ordinance and under authority of the General Code and the General Laws of the State of Ohio and particularly Sections 2283-24 and 2283-25 of the General Code of Ohio, and said notes shall bear the name of the improvement for which they are issued, legibly written or printed upon them as follows:

WEST SEVENTH STREET FROM PERSIMMON ALLEY TO MONROE STREET PAVING IMPROVEMENT NOTES.

SECTION 3 That said money so received by the issuance of said notes shall be placed to the credit of the following fund and in the amount there of:

WEST SEVENTH STREET FROM PERSIMMON ALLEY TO MONROE STREET PAVING IMPROVEMENT FUND $8596.84 and shall be deemed appropriated for the use for which it was borrowed and shall not be used for any other purpose.

SECTION 4 That the Director of Public Service be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue vouchers to the City Auditor for payments due under said contracts from said funds.

SECTION 5 For the payment of the principal and interest of said notes the full faith and credit and revenues of the City of East Liverpool be and they are hereby irrevocably pledged.

SECTION 6 The proceeds of the bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments and all portions thereof, together with interest thereon, and the proceeds of the bonds to be issued to pay the City's share of said improvements and all unexpended balances remaining unpaid in the funds after the cost and expenses of the improvements have been paid shall be applied to the payment of said notes and interest thereon as the same shall become due and to no other purpose whatsoever until all of said notes and said interest have been fully paid.

Kindergarten Graduates 'In Style'

29 Pupils In Robes Given Diplomas

GIVING them an idea of what's in store 12 years ahead, this kindergarten class at Midland was "graduated" into the first grade Tuesday night at a regular commencement ceremony, complete with robes, motorboards, diplomas, a speech and music.

Gowned in white with matching caps, the 29 youngsters of the Seventh St. School's kindergarten paraded down the aisle of the High School Auditorium to their seats on the stage. They are shown here led by their teacher, Mrs. Francis X. Mullen.

Ralph Jewell, superintendent of schools, spoke and presented the diplomas, which will admit them to school in the fall.

The program also included. Processional and recessional by the First Grade Rhythm Band, directed by Miss Eileen Sobat with Stephen Ceh as accompanist; singing of America, led by C. Lloyd Doffenbaugh, director of school music; invocation, Rev. Duane Stewart of the Methodist Church.

Class cheer, led by Joseph W. Williams Jr.; introduction, Dorothy C. Stewart; presentation of Parent-Teacher Association awards, Mrs. L. F. Pickering; presentation of key, Edward Bouldin Jr.; conclusion, Carolyn Rose Porto; benediction, Melva Vranes; solo, Gussie Gene Harstein.

The program was directed by Mrs. Mullen, teacher, and Miss Margaret Hogan, supervisor of elementary education. It was sponsored by the PTA.

Officers of the PTA are Mrs. Jack Haggerty, president, Mrs. Claude Reed, vice-president, Mrs. James Zelch, secretary, Miss Iner Bonessi, treasurer, and Mrs. Gino DeFrancis, historian.

West Point PTA Names 51-52 Officers

Gus Baumgarner of Glenmoor was elected president of the West Point Parent-Teacher Association at its final meeting of the term Monday night.

Mr. Baumgarner, tire store manager for Litten Motors, was vice-president. Other officers for 1951-52 are Jack Posnell, vice-president; Mrs. Mary Steffin, secretary, and Mrs. Florence Applegate, treasurer.

The group voted to buy baskets and nets for volleyball and basketball for the pre-school clinic to be held Wednesday, June 13.

Parents with children enrolling in the first grade are urged to bring the youngsters for the health examination. Parents who prefer private examinations may contact Mr. Baumgarner at East Liverpool 5516-W1.

The first grade taught by Mrs. Steffin won the attendance award.

Lisbon To Assist State Street Job

LISBON, May 23 (Special)—Village Council passed an emergency ordinance at a special meeting Tuesday night to co-operate with the State Highway Department in blacktopping approximately 250 feet of East Lincoln Way.

The stretch is part of Route 154—the Lisbon-Elkton Road—within the village limits. Permission of the village had to be obtained before the state could advertise for bids to improve the entire stretch between the county seat and Elkton.

A request for annexation was presented by a delegation of residents from Jordanville, a section south of the middle fork of the Little Beaver Creek.

Solicitor Lynn Riddle will prepare a petition for the residents to circulate.

Chemical Spilled From Tank Truck Damages 3 Cars

Three irate motorists complained to police Tuesday the paint on their parked autos was damaged by a chemical spilled from a tank truck that stalled on a lower Walnut St. grade.

Police said damage was reported by Mrs. Charles S. Wright of Georgetown R. D. 1, J. S. Probst, 2405 St. Clair Ave., and Jack Patterson of Park Way. In addition to paint damage, a fender on Mr. Patterson's 1950 car was nicked.

Witnesses said the chemical spilled from a big truck owned by Chemical Tank Lines, Inc., of Philadelphia, that stalled on Walnut St. near East Third St. The material sloshed through covers on the top as the driver "rocked" the big rig trying to get it into motion.

About 50 to 60 gallons was spilled before the driver finally gave up, backed south to the River Road and then drove up Broadway to get onto Route 30. The driver, Paul R. Ralston of Wellsburg, told the owners of the damaged cars he did not know the name of the chemical, but said it is used in a cleaning process in copper mills.

The damage occurred at 11.30 a. m. Central Station firemen were called to flush the spilled chemical.

Piles — Get Relief Now

Millions of sufferers in the last 40 years have found a way to fast relief from itching, smarting piles. They use a delightful cooling, soothing, astringent formula—Peterson's Ointment. No wonder one sufferer writes: "The itching and smarting were relieved, and I slept all night. Peterson's Ointment is marvelous." 40c & 70c, all drugists. Be delighted or money back.

'Free Roomer' Carries $4,281 In His Pockets

YOUNGSTOWN, May 23 (INS)—Samuel Shaw, a 65-year-old retired waiter, had an argument with his landlady so he decided it would be cheaper to sleep in the waiting room at the Erie Terminal here. Attendants chased him off the benches in the station, but he kept returning for his "free room".

When police decided to pick him up for trespassing yesterday, they found his pockets stuffed with $4,281 in bills.
